FRENCH EDITORS TALK WAR BETWEEN JAPAN AND AMERICA

Think Japan's Stand on
Arbitration Brings the Dangers of War Out
In Open.

WAR IS INEVITABLE

By FRANK E. MASON

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Sept. 29.—Japan's forcing of a deadlock on the arbitration protocol of the League of Nations over the question of exclusion of Japanese immigration from America, prompted an open discussion today in the Paris press on the danger of war between the United States and Japan.

The situation, which threatens the life of the arbitration court, if not of the League itself, resulted from Japan's declaration that Article Six of the protocol must be stricken out. The article designates as aggressor in war any state refusing to abide by a decision of the League council.

"It seemed at last night's meeting as if the hideous goddess of war had suddenly loomed up in the council room," Le Matin commented.

"The fatal causes which apparently are making war inevitable, are the necessity of a prolix race to find work and a place to live, coupled with a sentiment of honor in refusing to accept terms considered humiliating—these conditions on the one hand, confronted on the other by a country's right to be master of its own soil."

"One side is crying: 'I'm hungry.' The other quotes the eternal commandment: 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

Echo de Paris took a similar outlook.

"Whatever solution the council at Geneva adopts won't suppress the danger of an American-Japanese war. As a matter of fact, that danger is not even hidden any more. In wishing to dress sores which can't heal the Geneva peace doctors have only succeeded in irritating the wound."

Geneva, Sept. 29 (INS).—A long and important conference was held here today while effort were made to prevent Japan from taking any step which would wreck the proposed international disarmament conference.

Leaders of the foremost powers attempted to persuade the Japanese not to vote against the arbitration protocol because one adverse vote would prevent its adoption and automatically prevent the conference from being summoned.

The League covenant's requirement from unanimity is threatening to smash the entire disarmament conference project. It is understood the powers are now willing that Japan shall abstain from voting if she does not vote against the arbitration protocol.

Those taking part in the conference were Viscount Ishii, of Japan, M. Hymans, of Belgium; M. Briand, of France; Signor Salandra, of Italy; M. Politis, of Greece, and Lord Parmoor, of England. The meeting took place in the office of Sir Eric Drummond, permanent Secretary of the League.

Japan's original proposal was limited to a protocol amendment requiring an attempt at reconciliation after the world court at the Hague had given a decision upon an international issue. Now the Japanese are demanding definition of the term aggressor worded in such a manner as to exclude Japan from responsibility if war arises over the immigration issue.

"Persimism" of the League leaders was increased by the new demand of the Japanese.

The sub-commission scheduled to meet this morning to attempt to find a method of accepting the Japanese demands without reducing the arbitration protocol to impotency postponed its meeting until afternoon.

The Japanese had refused to make any concessions whatsoever.

Mrs. R. C. Morrison and daughter Lulu and granddaughter Nora are visiting relatives here. They expect to return to their home in Akron, Ohio, Wednesday.

"BACK BUTLER" TO BE SLOGAN OF BIG MEET AT PHILA. TONIGHT

Philadelphia, Sept. 29. (INS).—Following a conference at his office today Mayor Kendrick announced he will adhere to his original plan and take no action in his dispute with General Smedley Butler until the latter's return to city hall. It was rumored the mayor would send notice of his dismissal as safety director to the general at his home.

It was regarded as significant that Major General William G. Price, commander of the Pennsylvania national guard, and Joseph M. Steele, former president of the Law Enforcement League here, attended the conference. Mr. Steele has been mentioned as the general's successor until January 1 and General Price as his permanent successor.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29 (INS).—General Smedley D. Butler will probably retain his position as Director of Public Safety here for another day at least.

The general's health is not expected to permit his return to city hall today and unless Mayor Kendrick abandons his present plan and sends his dismissal to his home, the final clash in the bitter political battle which has driven the dove of peace from the city of Brotherly Love will be postponed once again.

Regardless of the Mayor's decision, the General's "reserve" troops will swing into action tonight when 4,000 citizens will rally to the cry "back Butler" at a giant "town meeting" in the Academy of Music arranged by the law enforcement league as a protest against the fighting Quaker's dismissal.

Interest in the meeting is so keen arrangements have been made for speakers to address overflow gatherings in the streets outside the Academy. League officials claim the demand for tickets is nearly 10 times as great as the capacity of the hall.

General Butler will not be in attendance and Mayor Kendrick also graciously declined an invitation to be present.

BANDITS CRUELLY BEAT AND ROB MAN WHO REFUSES LIFT

Pottstown, Pa., Sept. 29 (INS).—Huddled behind the steering wheel of his wrecked automobile, Arthur Brown, of Reading, was found early today by a passing motorist in a field off the Pottstown-West Chester highway, unconscious from a severe beating given by three highwaymen.

He was carried to Homeopathic hospital here where he was found to be suffering from internal injuries, fractured ribs and a possible skull fracture.

After being revived, Brown said the attack was made by three men, one colored, after he refused them a lift. The colored man, he said, hurled a brick which struck him in the head and made him lose control of the car. Then the three set upon him, beat him cruelly and robbed him of $32.00.

Springing to his master's defense, Brown's pet bull dog, with him in the machine, was clubbed into submission. Police are working on the theory the bandits are the same ones who murdered Joseph Krug, truck driver, near the same spot several weeks ago.

"MA" FERGUSON HAS RIGHT TO GOVERN

Austin, Tex., Sept. 29. (INS).—Mrs. Miriam "Ma" Ferguson, Democratic nominee for governor, is eligible to become governor of Texas, Judge George Calhoun ruled in district court here today in declining a temporary writ of injunction asked by Charles M. Dixon, who sought to restrain Mrs. Ferguson from becoming a candidate in the November elections.

TALL CEDARS MEET INDOORS

Because of the inclement weather the ceremonial of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon which was scheduled for Irvin Park, Curwensville, tomorrow evening, has been changed.

The dinner will be served at the Curwensville Masonic temple from 6 to 7 o'clock and the ceremonial will be held in the Curwensville opera house starting at 8.

Unveiled Monument To Airmen Who Flew Around The World

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 29. (INS).—Honoring the achievement of America's birdmen who first flew across the Pacific and circumnavigated the globe by air, a monument was to be unveiled this afternoon at Sand Point aviation field where at 1:40 p. m. Sunday the three "air Magellans" officially completed their 28,800 mile flight around the world. Reunited with Major Frederick L. Martin, original commander of the air venture, who was forced out of the round-the-world derby by misfortune in Alaska, Lieutenant Lowell Smith, Lieut. Erick Nelson and Lieut. Leigh Wade participated in the ceremonies today as the last act of their mastery of the air. The three flyers were glad that their task was over. Worn by the privations of the trip, wearied by the unending round of welcome according to them on their flight across the United States and a bit unmoved now that their success is complete, the birdmen were anxious today to rest.

"We are glad to be back and glad to have been able to take part in the flight," they said in unison and let it go at that.

"It is a remarkable achievement," said Major Martin, "My regret that I was unable to continue the flight with the pioneers gives me emotions I cannot express in words."

Major Martin was the first to greet the flyers on their arrival at Sand Point. The completion of the air voyage was an international event. Great Britain sent the battle cruiser H. M. S. Patricia to participate in the welcome. Foreign consuls joined with high army and navy officials in extending congratulations. Thousands battled to gain entrance to the aviation field to witness the completion of the epochal flight.

The flyers were guests at a public luncheon today. They will remain here perhaps for two weeks resting. Then they will return the three giant Douglas air cruisers to San Diego where air experts will study the effects of the trip on the machines.

SUCCEEDS MEEKER AS SEC'Y OF LABOR

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 29. (INS).—Richard H. Lansburgh, of Swarthmore, was today appointed to succeed Dr. Royal Meeker as head of the Department of Labor and Industry. Mr. Lansburgh has been in charge of classification in the State Department.

"I consider myself most fortunate to have secured Mr. Lansburgh's assistance in the work of this peculiarly difficult and important department," a statement from Governor Pinchot, issued from his office here, said.

Mr. Lansburgh has made a special study of problems of shop operation including the question of safety and has proved his executive ability, the statement said.

"I chose him," continues the statement, "because he is, in my opinion, the best equipped man in Pennsylvania for the job."

The new secretary will take up his official duties on October 16.

FIRST FATALITY OF FOOTBALL SEASON OCCURRED SUNDAY

Harrisburg, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—His heart pierced by a rib broken during a tackle in a game Sunday between the Harrisburg and Gaskins City independent teams, Max Lancaster, 22, former star football player of the local high school, was dead here today.

Regarded as one of the best football players ever produced in Southern Illinois, Lancaster was carrying the ball in the second quarter of the game when tackled in such a manner that he fell with the tackler's knee pressing on his stomach. He continued playing for a few minutes, then staggered to the side lines and died at his mother's feet.

Marilla Edmiston and Frances and Clara Ammerman spent Saturday with Louise Edmiston in Winburne and attended the football game.

Miss Donovan is leaving this week for her new home in Jersey Shore. A most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served.

CLEARFIELD HI OPENS 1924 GRID SEASON BY OVERWHELMING COOPER TWP. HIGH COACH REED LOOKS FOR A FINE SEASON

Flashing a brand of grid work that showed a generous quantity of all types of play well done with plenty of headiness and enthusiasm mixed with it, Clearfield High snowed under Cooper Township High with a 76 to 0 count in their own back yard near Winburne Saturday afternoon.

Capt. Bob Wilson and his squad were "too much football" for the Cooperites. That is, they were "too much heavier and knew too much more, or still better, they were too good for the 'punkin-busters.'"

When Cooper acted foolishly the Red and Black team took its "holts" and played the game. Every man on the Red team used his noodle very "footballically" and at no time was there a boner chalked up.

EARLY INDICTMENT OF POISONERS AIM OF STATE'S ATTORNEY

NO MORE POISON

Marion, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—A pre-nuptial "non-poison pact" by which it was mutually agreed that if one ever tied of the other, poison would not be resorted to as a means of eliminating the other, was revealed today by Robert Tate, in jail here charged with the slaying of Jodie Herington in a "love pact" murder with Herington's wife, Ruby.

Tate following his confession of his part in the crime, was asked whether he was not afraid to marry the widow who had once resorted to poison to rid herself of a mate.

"Oh, she promised before I married her that she'd never poison me," he responded, "and I told her I would never do anything like that again."

Marion, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—Immediate indictments charging murder in the first degree, will be sought against Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tate, confessed slayers of Joseph (Jodie) Herington, Johnston City coal miner, in Southern Illinois' latest poison mystery, State's Attorney Delos Duty announced today following the complete confession of Tate. Mrs. Tate confessed Saturday.

In his confession Tate stated that he gave Herington the first dose of arsenic and then furnished the poison to Mrs. Herington, to "feed it to him until he kicks off."

Sheriff Galligan obtained Tate's confession after more than 30 hours of grilling, when Tate finally broke down he sobbed out his confession.

WILL BUILD BIG GARAGE

Leavy Brothers, N. J. and Cecil, have broken ground for a big garage which they will erect on their lots on Cherry street, between Third and Fourth streets. The building, which will be 88x100 feet in size, will be built of concrete blocks and will be a decided improvement to that end of town.

ARMY OFFICER FOR THIS RESERVE AREA LOCATES AT DUBOIS

Captain Christianey Pickett, Field Artillery, U. S. A., reported today in DuBois for duty as executive officer of the 395th Field Artillery, a regiment of the organized reserves assigned to the non-divisional group, 3rd corps area with personal distributed about this vicinity.

The last station of the executive officer of this regiment was at Bedford, Pennsylvania, but it was decided at Headquarters Third Corps Area that the station of this officer should be changed to DuBois, a city of larger population and more centrally located as regards the residences of officers of the Reserve Corps who are assigned to this regiment. Captain Pickett also stated that the selection of DuBois was due to a great extent to its reputation as a live community, which had showed its interest and enthusiasm in affairs of national defense.

Captain Pickett's duties are not confined to the mere administration of the above mentioned regiment but includes supervision of and help to the other units of the organized reserves with command post at DuBois. He stated that he is also vitally concerned with the dissemination of information and help to members of the Officers Reserve Corps and Enlisted Reserve Corps or candidates for admission thereto. His desire is to stimulate the spirit of corps already existent among the members of the Reserve Corps and to encourage interest and the desire on the part of eligible persons to join. He states that he wishes it known that he is available at all times for work of the above nature and that people need not feel constrained to call only during business hours. He is perfectly willing to interview any one at any hour in case their work or business hours limit them to spare time after the day's work. At a later date his family will join him here and at the time his home will be open to those who cannot see him during business hours.

Captain Pickett remarked that his first impression of DuBois was a very favorable one, due to his friendly and hospitable reception by the postmaster and the Chamber of Commerce. Captain Pickett is temporarily located at the postoffice.

RED DAVIS HELD FOR MURDER ON STORY EYE WITNESS TELLS

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 29 (INS).—An eye witness tonight will tell the story of the shooting of John Mullen, 55 year old cripple, during a drinking party Friday morning and on the version Coroner's jury is expected to order E. E. Davis, Deputy warden of the Rockview penitentiary, held for murder.

Miss Cora Knepp, 26, who with her mother lives a short distance from the scene of the shooting, made a statement to District Attorney John Wilson that she saw the men "fighting, and shouting among themselves" between frequent drinks. The fighting was abruptly ended when "Davis drew his gun and fired" the girl said. Her mother did not witness the shooting.

Davis, now completely sobered after a two day stupor, told authorities he knows nothing of the shooting. Harry A. McCoy, a third member of the drinking party, is being held without bail as a material witness.

TRUE LOVE ALWAYS DID HAVE TROUBLE

Reno, Nev., Sept. 29. (INS).—At the request of his bride-to-be, Mrs. Margaret Nicholson, 60, a nurse, police today were searching for Francis A. Robb, 81, wealthy Reno business man, alleged to have been kidnapped at the altar as he was about to make Mrs. Nicholson his bride.

Robb had entered the church and the priest was just commencing the ceremony, when, according to witnesses, two men entered the church, grabbed the bridegroom by the shoulder and dragged him screaming for help to a waiting automobile. Two sons, said to have opposed the match of their wealthy father with the nurse, are being sought by police for questioning in the belief they may be able to throw some light upon the altar kidnaping.

KIDNAPER OF BILLY PARKER PLACED ON TRIAL THIS MORNING

Mrs. Alamanda Hall
Must Answer Charge
of Kidnaping and Ab-
duction of Child.

INTEREST IS KEEN

Mrs. Alamanda Hall, who is charged with kidnaping and abducting little Billy Parker from the Children's Home at Clearfield last March, and who, with her husband, father and child, was found in a hunting camp near Rockton a few weeks ago, was placed on trial in criminal court this morning before Judge A. R. Chase.

The woman is being prosecuted by District Attorney Arnold, assisted by A. H. Woodward, Esq. Mrs. Hall's defense is being looked after by Clarence Krammer, of Clearfield, and Rosentz, of DuBois.

That the defense promises to put up a spirited battle for the alleged kidnaper's freedom was evidenced when Attorney Krammer asked that they be given opportunity to examine each juror individually and separately. Judge Chase granted the request but notified the attorneys on both sides that he wanted the case carried along as speedily as possible, consistent with the rights of all parties concerned.

The work of securing a jury was taken up at 10:30 and all but two of three of the 12 men who will pass upon Mrs. Hall's guilt had been secured by noon.

The case is attracting a great deal of local interest, as is shown by the attendance, the spacious court room being crowded to the doors at the morning session.

The woman's husband is her companion at the counsel table. To wit her father, Cyrus Faurey, is also indicted for abduction, but the two men are not scheduled for trial at this term of court.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Philadelphia.—Search is on for the four military prisoners who saved their way out of the jail at Frankfort arsenal here last night. They were clad partially in army clothes.

LAKE FREIGHTER VICTIM OF STORM WRECKAGE SHOWS

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 29 (INS).—Search for the bodies of the crew of 28 of the steamer Clifton, which sank in a storm on Lake Huron last week, was to begin near Goderich, today. The Clifton's pilot house and other wreckage was found there yesterday. The Clifton was sighted for the last time on Sunday, September 21, at the Straits of Mackinac. It was proceeding to Detroit with a load of stone. At the time a heavy gale was blowing, which increased to its greatest height two hours later.

Other bits of the boat's wreckage were located today by the tug Falcon of Alpena. A cabin door bearing the name of the boat was found.

Margaret Wilkinson spent the week-end at her home in Munson and also took in the C. H. S. game at Winburne.

There is nothing of greater importance to us than the prosperity of our own community and prosperity at home is based on local business conditions.

If Clearfield merchants transact a large volume of business their prosperity is communicated to every person in the entire community.

The value of our real estate increases. Wages are increased. There is more money in circulation and it is more readily obtained for the purposes of expansion, paying for improvements, buying luxuries, etc.

In every way we discover better conditions on all sides when our business men are busy. And there is every reason in the world why we should spend our cash in Clearfield instead of sending it to the big city mail order houses. One of the largest game preserves in the state will be opened by reason of the acceptance by the State Board of Game Commissioners of 5,000 acres of land near Winterburn for that purpose. The land, which was once the property of the Craig and Blanchard estate, and which extends from Sabula to Winterburn, will be a paradise for hunters this fall, and will be an important addition to the lands already open to sportsmen.

The land has been purchased under the direction of the Baker Hunt-Club, and has not been opened for general hunting of those not belonging to the association. Under the new arrangement, this land will be open to all licensed hunters of the state.

1,000 acres—about one-fifth of the land, will, however, be wired off, and will be a refuge for game, where the hunter dare not trespass.

A report of receipts in the State Treasury should be all that would be required to convince the 1925 Legislature that additional State taxes are not needed. Receipts have been running fifty per cent. heavier than during the same period in 1923. The fiscal year to date has brought revenue of $122,500,000 while in the similar period of last year, the receipts were $115,000,000. Expenditures have been proportionately larger, being $142,500,000 as against $145,000,000 last year.

When the 1923 Legislature passed the "emergency" taxes—the net profits tax and the increased gasoline tax—the understanding was that these taxes should automatically repeal themselves at the end of two years, when the State's books ought to be balanced of the millions of debts then carried. Auditor General Lewis, in speeches last spring, said the taxes can be abolished, no new ones need be added, and that the State will continue to draw more revenue than ever before. In addition to the "emergency" taxes, a series of additional revenue raisers were passed last year, in the form of license fees for various State functions, which have added to the receipts and will continue to do so unless repealed.

The State Tax Commission, which is studying these and kindred questions, began another of its hearings yesterday in Pittsburgh, to hear views in that section of the State. Another hearing will be held in Philadelphia in two weeks. After the hearings have been completed, the commission will return here for a final meeting, when it will draft its reports to the legislature. That report is supposed to be not only a summary of findings as to present Pennsylvania tax laws, but suggestions of how other states exercise their taxing powers, and recommendations of how the laws in this

SHAPIRO'S STORE NARROWLY ESCAPES DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE

A bad fire was narrowly averted at the clothing and gent's furnishing store of Louis Shapiro last Saturday night by a fortunate discovery of the fire and prompt action by the firemen and citizens attracted to the scene. About 11 o'clock as H. L. Connolly was passing the store, he noticed smoke issuing from the ventilating grate in front of the building. Mr. Connolly promptly sent in the fire alarm and Assistant Chief Whitehill and several other firemen were on the ground almost at once.

The prompt application of a hand chemical tank soon had the fire extinguished, but it was a close call. The fire was caused by the dropping of a cigar or cigarette butt down through the grating in the sidewalk and it dropped among some rubbish and soon had a blaze going.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

Rally Day was celebrated in all the Departments of the church and Sabbath school yesterday. The morning message was on the theme of God our Banner, the text selected from the book of Exodus 17:15, "And Moses built an altar and called it Jehovah-nissi," being interpreted God, Our Banner. The musical numbers rendered by the Choir and Organists were well chosen and appropriate to the worship of the hour. It was our pleasure to have with us Mr. Floyd Pierson missionary from the Belgian Congo, who had a definite part in the service. At the Sabbath School Hour, the kiddies of the School enjoyed his message to the utmost, perhaps their first introduction to the country, which is yet in such great darkness. The evening hour of praise and blessing was the crowning service of the day, the men's chorus adding greatly to the hour, the selection "Some Blessed Day" was thoroughly fixed in the minds of everyone. The second in the series of sermons on Building for Life, was on the subject of work, a most essential part in the life of any one, no matter what their standing in life may be.

Wednesday evening the mid-week prayer and praise service, it will be our privilege to listen to Mr. Floyd Pierson again. All who heard him yesterday, will surely endeavor to be present, we want to have a real Rally on Wednesday evening and hope all will come and join us. We are looking forward to another time of rich blessing for our church, come and be blessed with us. Thursday afternoon the monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid at 3:00 in the church.

Class No. 4 monthly meeting on Wednesday following the prayer service, important business to be attended to, be out every member.

Thursday evening, a big mass rally of all the Protestant churches in Clearfield. Hon. Frank J. Cannon, former U. S. Senator will address the meeting on the subject, "And When They Forget God." Everyone is most cordially invited to attend this meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

The regular prayer service at the Rev. Mr. Chapel will be held at the usual hour, the meeting will be short so that all who care to may also attend the Mass meeting at the Church.

TRINITY CHURCH EVENTS

Yesterday the rally day brought out 546 persons by whom an offering of $68.46, was made. A fine line of music was enjoyed. Miss Carrie Powell conducted the graduation exercises of the class from the primary department to the junior. Test questions and memory Scriptures were presented before the entire school. After a satisfactory exhibition of these finals by the following children, diplomas were given by Miss Powell and special presentation Bibles, properly engrossed, were tendered to each, a gift from the entire school.

The graduates were Arvid Ardell Anderson, John Carlisle Arnold, Doris Marie Boalich, Grace Emma Brown, Minnie Priscilla Charleston, Robert Wallace Chase, Margaret Flegal, Hazel Fullington, Axonell Hall, Grant Lincoln Jay, Richard Irwin Kester, Jean Martha Kline, Charles Edward

LeBar, Charles Lynn, Audrey Ogden, John Dunlap Shively, Frederick Anderson Shupe, Florence May Shugarts, Frederick Paul Stauffer, Bruce Williams, and Dorothy Lois Wrigley.

Strangers and visitors in a very large number sized up the congregations of the day. The music was special and soulful. Elaborate designs of most beautiful flowers adorned the altar.

The week's events, Wednesday, a great congregational gathering will be in charge of the World Service Council, the lay members directing and carrying through the program. Official board meeting. Thursday, 7:30, business meeting of Ladies Aid Society, followed by the monthly church starting at 4, furnished by the officers at 20 cents a plate. Next Sunday has missionary program and offering in school.

Ignore Supper Law.
One of the ridiculous acts of parliament still in existence in England is that passed in the reign of Edward III, regulating the meals of the people, which forbids more than two courses being served at dinner or supper, except on certain holidays. Needless to say, the law is broken with impunity.

Confidence Wins.
There is nothing that is more effective in promoting your mental elements to do better work and more work than the positive conviction that you can, the deep interior feeling that you can—Larson.

Fearful for the Earth.
It was in the midst of a nose dive and Reginald, who was making his first flight, tugged frantically at the pilot's sleeve. "We better get away from here," he shrieked, "the earth's swelling up like a balloon and it's liable to burst any minute."

INVESTMENT BANKING

The investment bankers of the United States are planning an advertising campaign to make the public more familiar with securities, the ways to buy them and the firms that sell them. It is a plan which, as the president of their association says, will not only improve the standing of the investment bankers in the eyes of the public but "will save for honest investors hundreds of millions which now are needlessly lost."

Investment is becoming more and more of a problem with the American people, as their savings grow and require a profitable outlet. Stocks and bonds are going to be bought in ever-increasing volume. There is no danger of over-doing in investment, if the money is wisely placed.

That is a function of the investment banker. His profession is daily growing in prestige, as inexperienced investors grow weary of losing money in wildcat ventures and come to see the value of going to reputable and honest firms to advise them and execute their orders. Any prospective investor who does not know where to find such a firm can usually get the necessary information from his lawyer or his savings bank.

IN A FEW WORDS

A warning against over-confidence in the approaching national election was sounded by Senator George Wharton Pepper to Republicans of Lycoming county in an address at Memorial Park Saturday afternoon.

"We are on the right side of each great issue," he declared, "but we have candidates, national and local, who deserve our confidence, but this is no time for sleep-walking. It's a house-keeping proposition: ringing door-bells, with everybody in it. There is no room for factional or local jealousies."

Reminding his hearers that "this is football season," Senator Pepper ripped into the national opponents of the Republican party in true gridiron fashion.

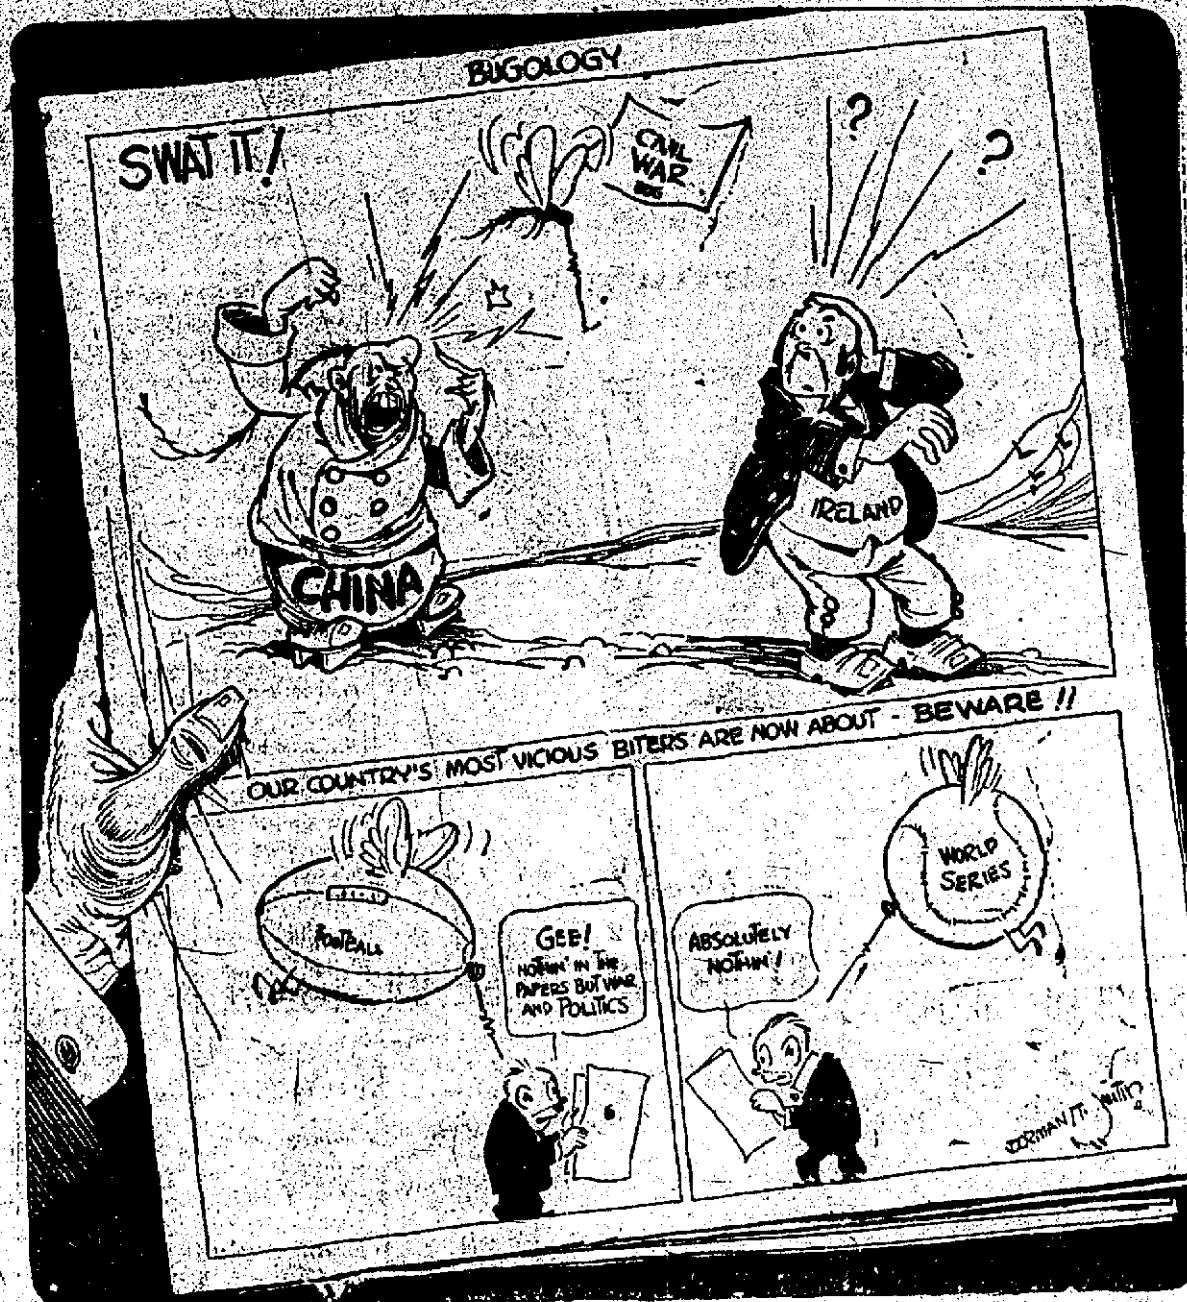

"Davis," he asserted, "talks much and says little; Bryan is more and says nothing. La Follette says little and says a lot but the planks that he is saving are the timbers which titulate the ribs and knees of the American ship of state."

"The Democrats have no message for the nation. The message of La Follette's party will in Pennsylvania affect only those who are strangers to the spirit and tradition of the commonwealth."

Your Savings

The fellow who tries to save only what is "left over" usually tries to save when there is nothing left but the impulse. Successful savers put savings first because saving first means saving systematically, while saving last means saving by chance. Get right on this saving proposition! Start today.

CLEARFIELD BUTTER MAKES THESE LITTLE BODIES THRIVE AND GROW

There is so much energy in every morsel of CLEARFIELD BUTTER that it's just such folks as these, folks who are consuming energy every minute just now, that need a butter which is high in food value.

And, by the same token, it's folks like these whose taste for good butter is keener than many an older person. CLEARFIELD BUTTER is distinctly the "Mother-let's-have-another-slice-of-bread" kind of spread for bread and the kiddies will appreciate the taste and thrive on the food value.

A DAY AT A TIME

By FLORENCE DAVIES
It's a little hard to realize when we hear the postman's cheerful whistle, or grumble because he brought us no letter on one of his daily or two-a-day trips, that there is a point in the northernmost tip of Alaska where the mail comes but once a year.

A year's mail in a single day. What would you do if you received it? What a scramble for news from loved ones there would be.

And you read the last letter first, or begin at the beginning and follow through. That would take a deal of courage and self-control.

The story is told of a man at Point Barrow, the tip-top point of Alaska, where mail comes but once a year, who subscribed to a daily paper. When the mail brought them all, a paper for every day in the past year, he didn't dive into the heap and scramble through the news. That would only have led to confusion. No, he piled them all in regular order and then set about it to read a paper a day.

Think of the courage and the self-control that man had. If you were reading news of the great war, wouldn't you want to know what happened next? If the news was right there in the stack of papers on your table, wouldn't you rummage around till you found it?

Of course you would. But probably the man was right. Reading all the papers at once would have given him a kind of mental indigestion and left him hungry for his days' newspaper reading in a few weeks.

Very few of us, however, would have that much self-control.

Most of us in fact, can't wait to know what the next day or year will bring, even when there's no way of finding out. Instead we waste a good deal of thought and worry trying to turn the pages of the book of our lives. We worry and wonder and fret about tomorrow, crossing a thousand bridges, little and big, before we come to them, fretting over a hundred "What-ifs".

Even if we could have the day's mail, and the day's news for the next ten years, even if we could look ahead, I wonder if it would be a good thing for us.

Perhaps some of us would falter at what we would see if we could cheat on the day's news and look ahead, just as the man at Point Barrow could, if he wanted to on his year old news.

Most of us are inclined to think that we could gain a good deal if only we could know what was going to come around the next corner. Put I don't think we would. I think that if we will all be honest with ourselves we'll find that if the next ten years are like the last, there will be a good deal of hurt, a good deal of worry and work, and disappointment, but some sure rewards, that in some way have made all the bother of living worth while.

Let's take it as it comes, a day at a time, knowing now that tomorrow's mail may contain bad news, but that to those who have stout hearts life offers some sure compensations, which do, after all, in the end, make the game worth the candle.

and entered a plea of guilty to manufacturing and possession. There being no evidence of sales, Judge Chase sentenced Delmonico to pay $200 fine and costs and serve 10 days in jail.

In the Courts

The second week of September term criminal court opened this morning at 9 o'clock with Judge Chase on the bench.

The first victim to toe the mark was Andrew Delmonico, who was arrested by Squire Roach and his dry squad up in the Houtzdale country several weeks ago. Delmonico did not appear when his case was called last week and a bench warrant was issued for him following the forfeiting of his bail. He appeared this morning.

Curwensville's Own Column

It is a fact, who for many years has been a resident of this place, now a soft drink bottling business. He was a visitor at the latter part of last week at the home of Frank L. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson, accompanied by his son, came up from Philadelphia where he is teaching school, to spend the week-end with his parents in this town.

Miss Clark, a student at the Clearfield College, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Wall informed us the other day that on September 26, 1865, he was a participant in a shooting match. He was a member of the team that defeated the team from the other town in the evening snow had fallen to a depth of several inches. He was the only one who was not hit. He was the only one who was not hit. He was the only one who was not hit.

and Mrs. George Cadman attended a birthday celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, Clearfield, Friday evening.

John Clark, who was a daughter of Edward Hipple, deceased, now in Washington, D. C., was an occasional visitor during the latter part of last week. It has been a good year since her last visit to the town of her birth, and in the interim the Hipple family has become almost extinct.

Mrs. England, whose home is in Clearfield, was in Curwensville last week. It is her first visit in fifty years. She is of the old England type who left Curwensville many years ago and settled in Ohio. When in charge.

In Curwensville the family lived in the old stone house, burned down in the early fifties, standing on the ground where the Patton brick home—stead now stands.

The funeral of Lemoine Ferguson was held on Saturday afternoon, the body being taken to the Ferguson cemetery for interment.

Mrs. J. M. Thompson of Big Run is a guest in the home of Miss Ella Bloom, Scofield street, for a few days.

An evening party was held in the home of Chief G. B. Clark on last Friday evening. Tables were set for three card tables. Late in the evening elegant refreshments were served to the guests.

Last Friday evening Constable Korb went up to the vicinity of Kellytown and arrested Mrs. Kolas and Joe Meslok on the charge of violating the Volstead Act. Some moonshine was found on the premises as was also a still and other paraphernalia for running booze. After a hearing before Squire Dale, each was committed to jail. Saturday bail in amount of $1,000 was entered for the release of the woman, but Joseph is yet in durance and seclusion with Billy McClure.

H. B. Thompson has been confined to his bedchamber for the past few days by illness.

Miss Marjorie Murray, who had intended to go to Williamsport Business School has changed that intention and will become a student at the DuBois Business School. The change was made on account of the ill health of her mother.

Mrs. William Hauck and two children and John L. Hauck of Troutville, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew J. LaPorte.

SIMON CALLED PETER

"Simon Called Peter," which comes to the Driggs Theatre Tuesday, Oct. 7th is the dramatization of Robert Keable's novel of the same name by Julius Eckert Goodman and Edward Knoll.

He tells the story of Peter, a war chaplain, and Julie, a red cross nurse. How the young man, a clergyman surrounded by the influence of the war melts transiently to the extent of soliciting a week-end in a London hotel, how Julie, far wiser, knows she can never thrust the vision of the cross and its sacred appeal from his heart. If he is all to her, she cannot be all to him. And one may guess she realizes as well that with the instincts of a gayety in her blood, they cannot be long contented together. But she does send Peter out into the world with a greater understanding of his purpose and a still deeper love for God.

William A. Brady, under whose management "Simon Called Peter" is presented has assembled an admirable company in the persons of Noel Traile, Catherine Willard, June Webster, Wilfred Jessop, Barlowe Boreland, Richard de Sylva and many others.

ONLY POLITICAL UNCERTAINTY HOLDS UP BUSINESS BOOM

New York, Sept. 27 (INS)—Progress in business during the third quarter has been substantial but it has varied considerably in different trades and operations remain under restraint even in lines where activity has increased most, says Duns Review today in its weekly review of business.

"The lack of a more vigorous commercial expansion," says Duns, "is partly accounted for by political conditions, which still cause hesitation, and in some cases, commitments are being held back because of doubts about future prices. Uncertainty in the steel industry with an abatement of demand has resulted from a new method of quoting prices, while cotton goods markets have been unsettled again by wide fluctuations in raw material prices due to changes in crop estimates. Yet some of the influences which now hinder business are not likely to prove more than temporary, and there is clear evidence that despite existing drawbacks, the situation as a whole shows improvement."

INDIANA COUNTY MAN SUICIDES BY MEANS OF SHOTGUN

James T. Crawford, who lives near Willet, Indiana county, committed suicide some time Wednesday afternoon by shooting himself in the head. A shotgun was used as the instrument of death and the charge struck him in the forehead, blowing the whole top of his head off. No definite cause for the terrible deed can be ascribed, unless the man was suffering under a visit of temporary insanity. His eyes had been causing him much trouble and he feared he was going blind. This may have weighed on his mind to such an extent as to lead him to end his troubles.

At noon Mr. Crawford said he was going to Willet that afternoon. The balance of the family went about their several duties and for a short time no one was about the house. It was during this absence the man went upstairs and committed the act. No one heard the shot. When he did not put in an appearance that afternoon nothing was thought about it, as they all thought he was at Willet. About 6 o'clock a son went upstairs and discovered the terrible tragedy.

The deceased was a son of the late Dr. Crawford, of Smicksburg, where he has a couple of brothers. He was about 51 years of age and is survived by his widow and three sons. Interment was made at Smicksburg.

Story of Cremation.

Before the Christian era cremation was prevalent among nearly all nations. Later, burial in the ground became common. Of late years sanitation is responsible for the revival of cremation, which is gaining supporters.

THOMAS C. LEE

Thomas C. Lee, an aged and prominent resident of the southern part of Clearfield county, died at the Lee homestead, midway between Utahville and Glasgow, at 5:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Death was due to diseases incident to old age. He observed his 82 birthday August 18, and apparently was enjoying good health. The deceased was born at McGees Mills, Clearfield county, August 18, 1842, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Lee, and spent his entire life in that community. He was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca McGee on February 2, 1865, and the couple took up housekeeping at McGees Mills, where they resided until 40 years ago when they moved to the farm not far from Utahville where they had since resided. Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Rebecca McGee Lee, and the following children: Mrs. Kittie I. Heverly, widow of Professor H. A. Heverly, for many years a resident of Altoona but more recently residing with the parents; James M. Lee, of Altoona; Wilbur B. Lee, of Pasadena, Calif.; Mrs. Martha Haley, of Utahville; Walter E. Lee, of Altoona; Mrs. Frank Scharman of Johnstown. Four daughters, Mrs. Hattie Neal, of Marion Centre; Mrs. Katurah Whetsel, of Mahaffey; Mrs. Rose Biddle, of New Market; and Mrs. Mary Evans, of Pittsburg, also survive, as do seven or eight grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren. He was of the Methodist faith. The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the late home. Interment in the Pleasant Hill cemetery near Glasgow.

Some Idea of a Garden.

Letter from a moderately sensitive man to a seed merchant: "Dear Sir: Having one-quarter acre of ground not used for anything but growing stones I wish to know if you have any choice of garden seeds. Please send me one dozen strawberry seeds; one box with five complete; one dozen plum seeds; ten square yards of grass; one concrete path, winding; six tall flowers, with six pieces of wall; one safety lawn mower, with patent apparatus for converting it into a safety razor. And please send enough packets to hold the strawberry and plum seeds, and side and back combs, for the honey. The grass should be green, not the withered kind I see in so many gardens—and the seeds of a flavor unsuited for chickens. Yours truly, A. E. GARDNER."

BRING THE RIM BACK

A mighty mean thief jumped onto the car of Capt. L. E. Wat. of the Salvation Army over at the grounds Thursday evening and ratted the extra rim and spare tire of the machine in case of emergency. To show you the Captain's heart is in the right place, he the thief can have the tire if he only bring back the rim. No question will be asked.

Clearfield High Opens

but was not at his best form, judging by his past work in the scrimmages against the first team.

Cooper's strength lay mostly in its backs, especially Dick, who found the brunt of the work on his shoulders. Shaffer, also displayed ability at catching passes and in the last quarter came within an ace of tallying for his team.

The Team Looks Good. Coach Reed is very much satisfied with the work of the team in its first start but is not slow in stating that they must defeat much better teams to win honors. He is very much satisfied with the fighting spirit of the team and its desire to carry on, although, as this means a lot to any team. The way the team carried itself also brought as much praise as did its fine work in the field.

Clearfield was supported by about 160 staunch rooters of all types, including eight or ten young fellows who traveled to the opening on foot.

SATURDAY'S DOPE

DuBois High got their first setback in their first game against Oil City, 13-0. The game was played at Oil City.

Phillipsburg went wild against Milheim, piling up 67 points while Milheim got only 13. Phillipsburg's 1924 team is said to be right there.

Altoona, with Bob Wicker at the helm, set Roaring Spring down 60-0 in the first game on Altoona's new field.

Johnstown smothered Hollidaysburg High 52-0 with Weigel taking the leading honors by his fine playing and scoring of four touchdowns.

The only conference team to lose Saturday was Windber, which went down before Greensburg, 60-0.

BLOWOUT CAUSED WRECK

While returning from a funeral at Phillipsburg Saturday afternoon a tire blew out on one of the wheels of the automobile of Robert Addleman, of Curwensville, as the machine rounded the curve near the coal tippie opposite the Bigler Brick Works. The car skidded off the road and was pretty badly smashed up. There were several persons in the car, but a grandson of Mr. Addleman, with a bad cut on the hand, appeared to be the only casualty worth mentioning.

Numetal Weatherstrips Keep Out Rain and Cold

The time is fast approaching when NUMETAL WEATHERSTRIPS should be installed in your home, whether it's a new one or an old one. These strips are cleverly formed pieces of brass that will take up the "slack" between doors and windows and the frames.

NUMETAL WEATHERSTRIPS are easily installed, you can do it yourself. There is nothing to wear out about them and they will last for years. They will stop the windows and doors from rattling and keep out rain, cold, wind and dust.

Let us show you how little it will cost to install them in your home.

PITTSBURGH PEOPLE TURN TO WEAPONS IN ENDING FAMILY JARS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 28 (INS).—Hysterical from a night of weeping, Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Gardner, 22, was being held in the Oakland police station today in connection with the murder of her husband, Edward R. Gardner, 38, whose body was found in their home Sunday. No charges have been lodged against the woman, but police claim to have a signed confession from her in which she admits stabbing her husband with an ice pick.

Mrs. Gardner declared she had seized the ice pick as a weapon to protect herself from an attack her husband had started. She told police how Gardner continually beat her until she was forced to go to her neighbors' home at various times to escape him. Mrs. Gardner had fled to a neighbor's home after the fatal quarrel, and did not know the wound she inflicted with the ice pick was fatal until discovery of the body by a friend who went to attempt a reconciliation.

The Gardners were married in Chicago where both formerly worked as employees of the Kinney-Rome Mattress Manufacturers. Gardner had been promoted to manage the Pittsburgh office of the company when a branch was opened here.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29 (INS).—Mrs. Sadie Baldwin, 43, of Carnegie, who was brought to the Mercy Hospital here after being shot four times in her Carnegie home rested well last night and is not in a critical condition according to hospital authorities today.

Frank Baldwin, 48, who is said by police to have shot his wife because she would not arrange the furniture to suit him, is in the Carnegie jail charged with shooting with intent to kill.

Are You Ruptured?

We wish to announce the visit of the Collings Truss Experts at the Dimmeling Hotel, Clearfield, Pa., from Tuesday noon, Sept. 30, to Wednesday evening, Oct. 1, from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m. and evenings 7 to 9.

Back View of
New Invention for Rupture

We want to demonstrate to you absolutely without a penny in advance, our new invention for holding difficult or aggravated cases of rupture whether of Inguinal or Umbilical character. If you are ruptured you should be interested in our ability to fit you with a truss that will do its work properly and give you the greatest ease and comfort possible.

Scientific and Practical

This New Collings Truss is based on the most scientific principles for holding a rupture. It is not only representative of mechanical perfection but contains that super-power for holding a rupture without discomfort, and that makes for a complete recovery where this result is possible.

Contains No Springs

There are no springs or metal parts used in this new truss other than the small necessary buckles; instead it is made of high-grade elastic web with soft, pliable cloth back made wider so to distribute the pressure over a broader surface. Prevents all cutting and chafing, and gives the necessary uplift to the pads.

It Holds the Rupture

It is easily, quickly and permanently adjusted so an even and uniform pressure can be constantly maintained at any desired tension. The patented sectional pads are adaptable and will fit any kind of rupture. As the cure progresses the pressures can be lessened without a change of pads.

It Stays Put

When placed in position, the truss stays put and does not slide or slide. Regardless of the position of the wearer's body; stooping, jumping or standing erect, the truss remains firm and set, and adjusts itself as the occasion demands.

Comfortable Day or Night

To do its maximum amount of good, a truss should be worn continuously day and night. Upon retiring many people remove their truss, with the result that the weakened muscular tissues relax and often times allow the rupture to assume the form of the original protrusion. This new truss can be worn at all times.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS

From Tuesday Noon, Sept. 30, to Wednesday Evening, Oct. 1.

Lady Fitter to Attend

All Women Callers.

Every ruptured person should visit these truss experts and learn what genuine truss-comfort means. No charge for demonstration or information.

NUMBER 229

FRENCH EDITORS TALK WAR BETWEEN JAPAN AND AMERICA

Think Japan's Stand on
Arbitration Brings the Dangers of War Out
In Open.

WAR IS INEVITABLE

By FRANK E. MASON

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Sept. 29.—Japan's forcing of a deadlock on the arbitration protocol of the League of Nations over the question of exclusion of Japanese immigration from America, prompted an open discussion today in the Paris press on the danger of war between the United States and Japan.

The situation, which threatens the life of the arbitration court, if not of the League itself, resulted from Japan's declaration that Article Six of the protocol must be stricken out. The article designates as aggressor in war any state refusing to abide by a decision of the League council.

"It seemed at last night's meeting as if the hideous goddess of war had suddenly loomed up in the council room," Le Matin commented.

"The fatal causes which apparently are making war inevitable, are the necessity of a profligate race to find work and a place to live, coupled with a sentiment of honor in refusing to accept terms considered humiliating—these conditions on the one hand, confronted on the other by a country's right to be master of its own soil."

"One side is crying: 'I'm hungry.' The other quotes the eternal commandment: 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

Echo de Paris took a similar outlook. "Whatever solution the council at Geneva adopts won't suppress the danger of an American-Japanese war. As a matter of fact, that danger is not even hidden any more. In wishing to dress sores which can't heal the Geneva peace doctors have only succeeded in irritating the wound."

Geneva, Sept. 29 (INS).—A long and important conference was held here today while effort were made to prevent Japan from taking any step which would wreck the proposed international disarmament conference. Leaders of the foremost powers attempted to persuade the Japanese not to vote against the arbitration protocol because one adverse vote would prevent its adoption and automatically prevent the conference from being summoned.

The League covenant's requirement from unanimity is threatening to smash the entire disarmament conference project. It is understood the powers are now willing that Japan shall abstain from voting if she does not vote against the arbitration protocol.

Those taking part in the conference were Viscount Ishii, of Japan, M. Hymans, of Belgium; M. Briand, of France; Signor Salandra, of Italy; M. Politis, of Greece, and Lord Parmoor, of England. The meeting took place in the office of Sir Eric Drummond, permanent Secretary of the League.

Japan's original proposal was limited to a protocol amendment requiring an attempt at reconciliation after the world court at the Hague had given a decision upon an international issue. Now the Japanese are demanding definition of the term aggressor worded in such a manner as to exclude Japan from responsibility if war arises over the immigration issue.

"Persimism" of the League leaders was increased by the new demand of the Japanese.

The sub-commission scheduled to meet this morning to attempt to find a method of accepting the Japanese demands without reducing the arbitration protocol to impotency postponed its meeting until afternoon.

The Japanese had refused to make any concessions whatsoever.

"BACK BUTLER" TO BE SLOGAN OF BIG MEET AT PHILA. TONIGHT

Philadelphia, Sept. 29. (INS).—Following a conference at his office today Mayor Kendrick announced he will adhere to his original plan and take no action in his dispute with General Smedley Butler until the latter's return to city hall. It was rumored the mayor would send notice of his dismissal as safety director to the general at his home.

It was regarded as significant that Major General William G. Price, commander of the Pennsylvania national guard, and Joseph M. Steele, former president of the Law Enforcement League here, attended the conference. Mr. Steele has been mentioned as the general's successor until January 1 and General Price as his permanent successor.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29 (INS).—General Smedley D. Butler will probably retain his position as Director of Public Safety here for another day at least.

The general's health is not expected to permit his return to city hall today and unless Mayor Kendrick abandons his present plan and sends his dismissal to his home, the final clash in the bitter political battle which has driven the dove of peace from the city of Brotherly Love will be postponed once again.

Regardless of the Mayor's decision, the General's "reserve" troops will swing into action tonight when 4,000 citizens will rally to the cry "back Butler" at a giant "town meeting" in the Academy of Music arranged by the law enforcement league as a protest against the fighting Quaker's dismissal.

Interest in the meeting is so keen arrangements have been made for speakers to address overflow gatherings in the streets outside the Academy. League officials claim the demand for tickets is nearly 10 times as great as the capacity of the hall.

General Butler will not be in attendance and Mayor Kendrick also graciously declined an invitation to be present.

BANDITS CRUELLY BEAT AND ROB MAN WHO REFUSES LIFT

Pottstown, Pa., Sept. 29 (INS).—Huddled behind the steering wheel of his wrecked automobile, Arthur Brown, of Reading, was found early today by a passing motorist in a field off the Pottstown-West Chester highway, unconscious from a severe beating given by three highwaymen.

He was carried to Homeopathic hospital here where he was found to be suffering from internal injuries, fractured ribs and a possible skull fracture.

After being revived, Brown said the attack was made by three men, one colored, after he refused them a lift. The colored man, he said, hurled a brick which struck him in the head and made him lose control of the car. Then the three set upon him, beat him cruelly and robbed him of $32.00.

Springing to his master's defense, Brown's pet bull dog, with him in the machine, was clubbed into submission. Police are working on the theory the bandits are the same ones who murdered Joseph Krug, truck driver, near the same spot several weeks ago.

"MA" FERGUSON HAS RIGHT TO GOVERN

Austin, Tex., Sept. 29. (INS).—Mrs. Miriam "Ma" Ferguson, Democratic nominee for governor, is eligible to become governor of Texas, Judge George Calhoun ruled in district court here today in declining a temporary writ of injunction asked by Charles M. Dixon, who sought to restrain Mrs. Ferguson from becoming a candidate in the November elections.

Unveiled Monument To Airmen Who Flew Around The World

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 29. (INS).—Honoring the achievement of America's birdmen who first flew across the Pacific and circumnavigated the globe by air, a monument was to be unveiled this afternoon at Sand Point aviation field where at 1:40 p. m. Sunday the three "air Magellans" officially completed their 28,800 mile flight around the world. Reunited with Major Frederick L. Martin, original commander of the air venture, who was forced out of the round-the-world derby by misfortune in Alaska, Lieutenant Lowell Smith, Lieut. Erick Nelson and Lieut. Leigh Wade participated in the ceremonies today as the last act of their mastery of the air. The three flyers were glad that their task was over. Worn by the privations of the trip, wearied by the unending round of welcome according to them on their flight across the United States and a bit unmoved now that their success is complete, the birdmen were anxious today to rest.

"We are glad to be back and glad to have been able to take part in the flight," they said in unison and let it go at that.

"It is a remarkable achievement," said Major Martin, "My regret that I was unable to continue the flight with the pioneers gives me emotions I cannot express in words."

Major Martin was the first to greet the flyers on their arrival at Sand Point. The completion of the air voyage was an international event. Great Britain sent the battle cruiser H. M. S. Patricia to participate in the welcome. Foreign consuls joined with high army and navy officials in extending congratulations. Thousands battled to gain entrance to the aviation field to witness the completion of the epochal flight.

The flyers were guests at a public luncheon today. They will remain here perhaps for two weeks resting. Then they will return the three giant Douglas air cruisers to San Diego where air experts will study the effects of the trip on the machines.

SUCCEEDS MEEKER AS SEC'Y OF LABOR

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 29. (INS).—Richard H. Lansburgh, of Swarthmore, was today appointed to succeed Dr. Royal Meeker as head of the Department of Labor and Industry. Mr. Lansburgh has been in charge of classification in the State Department.

"I consider myself most fortunate to have secured Mr. Lansburgh's assistance in the work of this peculiarly difficult and important department," a statement from Governor Pinchot, issued from his office here, said.

Mr. Lansburgh has made a special study of problems of shop operation including the question of safety and has proved his executive ability, the statement said.

"I chose him," continues the statement, "because he is, in my opinion, the best equipped man in Pennsylvania for the job."

The new secretary will take up his official duties on October 16.

FIRST FATALITY OF FOOTBALL SEASON OCCURRED SUNDAY

Harrisburg, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—His heart pierced by a rib broken during a tackle in a game Sunday between the Harrisburg and Gaskins City independent teams, Max Lancaster, 22, former star football player of the local high school, was dead here today.

Regarded as one of the best football players ever produced in Southern Illinois, Lancaster was carrying the ball in the second quarter of the game when tackled in such a manner that he fell with the tackler's knee pressing on his stomach. He continued playing for a few minutes, then staggered to the side lines and died at his mother's feet.

Marilla Edmiston and Frances and Clara Ammerman spent Saturday with Louise Edmiston in Winburne and attended the football game.

Miss Donovan is leaving this week for her new home in Jersey Shore. A most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served.

CLEARFIELD HI OPENS 1924 GRID SEASON BY OVERWHELMING COOPER TWP. HIGH COACH REED LOOKS FOR A FINE SEASON

Flashing a brand of grid work that showed a generous quantity of all types of play well done with plenty of headiness and enthusiasm mixed with it, Clearfield High snowed under Cooper Township High with a 76 to 0 count in their own back yard near Winburne Saturday afternoon.

Capt. Bob Wilson and his squad were "too much football" for the Cooperites. That is, they were "too much heavier and knew too much more, or still better, they were too good for the 'punkin-bunkers.'"

When Cooper acted foolishly the Red and Black team took its "holts" and played the game. Every man on the Red team used his noodle very "footballically" and at no time was there a "boner" chalked up.

On the other fingers Cooper township slipped football sense and at times played foolishly and showed lack of coaching. The "corn fed" ones showed no lack of strength in their tackling and some parts of the game, yet they did not possess that grooming that makes efficient players.

The C. H. S. lineup for the initial contests displayed unmistakable signs of ability. The players were forever using their mentality to the best advantage. The backfield—Mitchell, Bates at quarter, Bowes at full, Wilson and Barnes at halves—played a big part in the machine play and was forever adding that needed quantity to

NO MORE POISON

Marion, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—A pre-nuptial "non-poison pact" by which it was mutually agreed that if one ever tired of the other, poison would not be resorted to as a means of eliminating the other, was revealed today by Robert Tate, in jail here charged with the slaying of Jodie Herington in a "love pact" murder with Herington's wife, Ruby.

Tate following his confession of his part in the crime, was asked whether he was not afraid to marry the widow who had once resorted to poison to rid herself of a mate.

"Oh, she promised before I married her that she'd never poison me," he responded, "and I told her I would never do anything like that again."

Marion, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS).—Immediate indictments charging murder in the first degree, will be sought against Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tate, confessed slayers of Joseph (Jodie) Herington, Johnston City coal miner, in Southern Illinois' latest poison mystery, State's Attorney Delos Duty announced today following the complete confession of Tate. Mrs. Tate confessed Saturday.

In his confession Tate stated that he gave Herington the first dose of arsenic and then furnished the poison to Mrs. Herington, to "feed it to him until he kicks off."

Sheriff Galligan obtained Tate's confession after more than 30 hours of grilling, when Tate finally broke down he sobbed out his confession.

WILL BUILD BIG GARAGE

Leavy Brothers, N. J. and Cecil, have broken ground for a big garage which they will erect on their lots on Cherry street, between Third and Fourth streets. The building, which will be 88x100 feet in size, will be built of concrete blocks and will be a decided improvement to that end of town.

ARMY OFFICER FOR THIS RESERVE AREA LOCATES AT DUBOIS

Captain Christianey Pickett, Field Artillery, U. S. A., reported today in DuBois for duty as executive officer of the 395th Field Artillery, a regiment of the organized reserves assigned to the non-divisional group, 3rd corps area with personal distributed about this vicinity.

The last station of the executive officer of this regiment was at Bedford, Pennsylvania, but it was decided at Headquarters Third Corps Area that the station of this officer should be changed to DuBois, a city of larger population and more centrally located as regards the residences of officers of the Reserve Corps who are assigned to this regiment. Captain Pickett also stated that the selection of DuBois was due to a great extent to its reputation as a live community, which had showed its interest and enthusiasm in affairs of national defense.

Captain Pickett's duties are not confined to the mere administration of the above mentioned regiment but includes supervision of and help to the other units of the organized reserves with command post at DuBois. He stated that he is also vitally concerned with the dissemination of information and help to members of the Officers Reserve Corps and Enlisted Reserve Corps or candidates for admission thereto. His desire is to stimulate the spirit of corps already existent among the members of the Reserve Corps and to encourage interest and the desire on the part of eligible persons to join. He states that he wishes it known that he is available at all times for work of the above nature and that people need not feel constrained to call only during business hours. He is perfectly willing to interview any one at any hour in case their work or business hours limit them to spare time after the day's work. At a later date his family will join him here and at the time his home will be open to those who cannot see him during business hours.

Captain Pickett remarked that his first impression of DuBois was a very favorable one, due to his friendly and hospitable reception by the postmaster and the Chamber of Commerce. Captain Pickett is temporarily located at the postoffice.

RED DAVIS HELD FOR MURDER ON STORY EYE WITNESS TELLS

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 29 (INS).—An eye witness tonight will tell the story of the shooting of John Mullen, 55 year old cripple, during a drinking party Friday morning and on the version Coroner's jury is expected to order E. E. Davis, Deputy warden of the Rockview penitentiary, held for murder.

Miss Cora Knepp, 26, who with her mother lives a short distance from the scene of the shooting, made a statement to District Attorney John Wilson that she saw the men "fighting, and shouting among themselves" between frequent drinks. The fighting was abruptly ended when "Davis drew his gun and fired" the girl said. Her mother did not witness the shooting.

Davis, now completely sobered after a two day stupor, told authorities he knows nothing of the shooting. Harry A. McCoy, a third member of the drinking party, is being held without bail as a material witness.

TRUE LOVE ALWAYS DID HAVE TROUBLE

Reno, Nev., Sept. 29. (INS).—At the request of his bride-to-be, Mrs. Margaret Nicholson, 60, a nurse, police today were searching for Francis A. Robb, 81, wealthy Reno business man, alleged to have been kidnapped at the altar as he was about to make Mrs. Nicholson his bride.

Robb had entered the church and the priest was just commencing the ceremony, when, according to witnesses, two men entered the church, grabbed the bridegroom by the shoulder and dragged him screaming for help to a waiting automobile.

Two sons, said to have opposed the match of their wealthy father with the nurse, are being sought by police for questioning in the belief they may be able to throw some light upon the altar kidnaping.

KIDNAPER OF BILLY PARKER PLACED ON TRIAL THIS MORNING

Mrs. Alamanda Hall
Must Answer Charge
of Kidnaping and Ab-
duction of Child.

INTEREST IS KEEN

Mrs. Alamanda Hall, who is charged with kidnaping and abducting little Billy Parker from the Children's Home at Clearfield last March, and who, with her husband, father and child, was found in a hunting camp near Rockton a few weeks ago, was placed on trial in criminal court this morning before Judge A. R. Chase.

The woman is being prosecuted by District Attorney Arnold, assisted by A. H. Woodward, Esq. Mrs. Hall's defense is being looked after by Clarence Krammer, of Clearfield, and Rosentz, of DuBois.

The defense promises to put up a spirited battle for the alleged kidnaper's freedom was evidenced when Attorney Krammer asked that they be given opportunity to examine each juror individually and separately. Judge Chase granted the request but notified the attorneys on both sides that he wanted the case carried along as speedily as possible, consistent with the rights of all parties concerned.

The work of securing a jury was taken up at 10:30 and all but two of three of the 12 men who will pass upon Mrs. Hall's guilt had been secured by noon.

The case is attracting a great deal of local interest, as is shown by the attendance, the spacious court room being crowded to the doors at the morning session.

The woman's husband is her companion at the counsel table. He will let father, Cyrus Faurey, is also indicted for abduction, but the two men are not scheduled for trial at this term of court.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Philadelphia.—Search is on for the four military prisoners who saved their way out of the jail at Frankfort arsenal here last night. Eleven other prisoners in the same "pen" refused to make the dash for fear of being shot. The four, alleged to be army deserters, are Joseph Wadling, 40, Austin Dice, John Pickle and Joseph Noker. They were clad partially in army clothes.

Reading.—Two suspects, both said to have confessed, are being held by police in connection with the death of Jonathan Klapp, storekeeper, who was murdered by three negro bandits he discovered, robbing his store at Robesonia, last Saturday. They are Leamon Crocker and Bruce. Bruce was taken by the posse which scoured the countryside for the murders Saturday.

LAKE FREIGHTER VICTIM OF STORM WRECKAGE SHOWS

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 29 (INS).—Search for the bodies of the crew of 28 of the steamer Clifton, which sank in a storm on Lake Huron last week, was to begin near Goderich, today. The Clifton's pilot house and other wreckage was found there yesterday. The Clifton was sighted for the last time on Sunday, September 21, at the Straits of Mackinac. It was proceeding to Detroit with a load of stone. At the time a heavy gale was blowing, which increased to its greatest height two hours later.

Other bits of the boat's wreckage were located today by the tug Falcon of Alpena. A cabin door bearing the name of the boat was found.

Margaret Wilkinson spent the week-end at her home in Munson and also took in the C. H. S. game at Winburne.

Why It Will Pay You to Trade In Clearfield

There is nothing of greater importance to us than the prosperity of our own community and prosperity at home is based on local business conditions.

If Clearfield merchants transact a large volume of business their prosperity is communicated to every person in the entire community.

The value of our real estate increases. Wages are increased. There is more money in circulation and it is more readily obtained for the purposes of expansion, paying for improvements, buying luxuries, etc.

In every way we discover better conditions on all sides when our business men are busy. And there is every reason in the world why we should spend our cash in Clearfield instead of sending it to the big city mail order houses. By keeping it in circulation in our home community we profit in many ways.

Every dollar sent out of Clearfield detracts just so much from our own individual prosperity, as well as from the prosperity of the merchants of Clearfield and the community in general.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. G.

One of the largest game preserves in the state will be opened by reason of the acceptance by the State Board of Game Commissioners of 5,142 acres of land near Winterburn for that purpose. The land, which was once the property of the Craig and Blanchard estate, and which extends from Sabula to Winterburn, will be a paradise for hunters this fall, and will be an important addition to the lands already open to sportsmen.

The land has been under the direction of the Baker Hunt-Club, and has not been opened for general hunting of those not belonging to the association. Under the new arrangement, this land will be open to all licensed hunters of the state.

1,000 acres—about one-fifth of the land, will, however, be wired off, and will be a refuge for game, where the hunter dare not trespass.

A report of receipts in the State Treasury should be all that would be required to convince the 1925 Legislature that additional State taxes are not needed. Receipts have been running fifty per cent. heavier than during the same period in 1923. The fiscal year to date has brought revenue of $122,500,000 while in the similar period of last year, the receipts were $115,000,000. Expenditures have been proportionately larger, being $142,500,000 as against $145,000,000 last year.

When the 1923 Legislature passed the "emergency" taxes—the net profits tax and the increased gasoline tax—the understanding was that these taxes should automatically repeal themselves at the end of two years, when the State's books ought to be balanced of the millions of debts then carried. Auditor General Lewis, in speeches last spring, said the taxes can be abolished, no new ones need be added, and that the State will continue to draw more revenue than ever before. In addition to the "emergency" taxes, a series of additional revenue raisers were passed last year, in the form of license fees for various State functions, which have added to the receipts and will continue to do so unless repealed.

The State Tax Commission, which is studying these and kindred questions, began another of its hearings yesterday in Pittsburgh, to hear views in that section of the State. Another hearing will be held in Philadelphia in two weeks. After the hearings have been completed, the commission will return here for a final meeting, when it will draft its reports to the legislature. That report is supposed to be not only a summary of findings as present Pennsylvania tax laws, but suggestions of how other states exercise their taxing powers, and recommendations of how the laws in this

A bad fire was narrowly averted at the clothing and gent's furnishing store of Louis Shapiro last Saturday night by a fortunate discovery of the fire and prompt action by the firemen and citizens attracted to the scene. About 11 o'clock as H. L. Connolly was passing the store, he noticed smoke issuing from the ventilating grate in front of the building. Mr. Connolly promptly sent in the fire alarm and Assistant Chief Whitehill and several other firemen were on the ground almost at once.

The prompt application of a hand chemical tank soon had the fire extinguished, but it was a close call. The fire was caused by the dropping of a cigar or cigarette butt down through the grating in the sidewalk and it dropped among some rubbish and soon had a blaze going.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

Rally Day was celebrated in all the Departments of the church and Sabbath school yesterday. The morning message was on the theme of God our Banner, the text selected from the book of Exodus 17:15, "And Moses built an altar and called it Jehovah-nissi," being interpreted God, Our Banner. The musical numbers rendered by the Choir and Organists were well chosen and appropriate to the worship of the hour. It was our pleasure to have with us Mr. Floyd Pierson missionary from the Belgian Congo, who had a definite part in the service. At the Sabbath School Hour, the kiddies of the School enjoyed his message to the utmost, perhaps their first introduction to the country, which is yet in such great darkness. The evening hour of praise and blessing was the crowning service of the day, the men's chorus adding greatly to the hour, the selection "Some Blessed Day" was thoroughly fixed in the minds of everyone. The second in the series of sermons on Building for Life, was on the subject of work, a most essential part in the life of any one, no matter what their standing in life may be.

Wednesday evening the mid-week prayer and praise service, it will be our privilege to listen to Mr. Floyd Pierson again. All who heard him yesterday, will surely endeavor to be present, we want to have a real Rally on Wednesday evening and hope all will come and join us. We are looking forward to another time of rich blessing for our church, come and be blessed with us. Thursday afternoon the monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid at 3:00 in the church.

Class No. 4 monthly meeting on Wednesday following the prayer service, important business to be attended to, be out every member.

Thursday evening, a big mass rally of all the Protestant churches in Clearfield, Hon. Frank J. Cannon, former U. S. Senator will address the meeting on the subject, "And When They Forget God." Everyone is most cordially invited to attend this meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

The regular prayer service at the Rev. Mr. Chapel will be held at the usual hour, the meeting will be so that all who care to may also attend the Mass meeting at the Church.

TRINITY CHURCH EVENTS

Yesterday the rally day brought out 546 persons by whom an offering of $68.46, was made. A fine line of music was enjoyed. Miss Carrie Powell conducted the graduation exercises of the class from the primary department to the junior. Test questions and memory Scriptures were presented before the entire school. After a satisfactory exhibition of these finals by the following children, diplomas were given by Miss Powell and special presentation Bibles, properly engrossed, were tendered to each, a gift from the entire school.

The graduates were Arvid Ardell Anderson, John Carlisle Arnold, Doris Marie Boalich, Grace Emma Brown, Minnie Priscilla Charleston, Robert Wallace Chase, Margaret Flegal, Hazel Fullington, Axonell Hall, Grant Lincoln Jay, Richard Irwin Kester, Jean Martha Kline, Charles Edward

LeBar, Charles Lynn, Audrey Ogden, John Dunlap Shively, Frederick Anderson Shupe, Florence May Shugarts, Frederick Paul Stauffer, Bruce Williams, and Dorothy Lois Wrigley.

Strangers and visitors in a very large number sized up the congregations of the day. The music was special and soulful. Elaborate designs of most beautiful flowers adorned the altar.

The week's events, Wednesday, a great congregational gathering will be in charge of the World Service Council, the lay members directing and carrying through the program. Official board meeting. Thursday, 7:30, business meeting of Ladies Aid Society, followed by the monthly church starting at 4, furnished by the officers at 20 cents a plate. Next Sunday has missionary program and offering in school.

Ignore Supper Law.
One of the ridiculous acts of parliament still in existence in England is that passed in the reign of Edward III, regulating the meals of the people, which forbids more than two courses being served at dinner or supper, except on certain holidays. Needless to say, the law is broken with impunity.

INVESTMENT BANKING

The investment bankers of the United States are planning an advertising campaign to make the public more familiar with securities, the ways to buy them and the firms that sell them. It is a plan which, as the president of their association says, will not only improve the standing of the investment bankers in the eyes of the public but "will save for honest investors hundreds of millions which now are needlessly lost."

Investment is becoming more and more of a problem with the American people, as their savings grow and require a profitable outlet. Stocks and bonds are going to be bought in ever-increasing volume. There is no danger of over-doing in investment, if the money is wisely placed.

That is a function of the investment banker. His profession is growing in prestige, as inexperienced investors grow weary of losing money in wildcat ventures and come to see the value of going to reputable and honest firms to advise them and execute their orders. Any prospective investor who does not know where to find such a firm can usually get the necessary information from his lawyer or his savings bank.

IN A FEW WORDS

A warning against over-confidence in the approaching national election was sounded by Senator George Wharton Pepper to Republicans of Lycoming county in an address at Memorial Park Saturday afternoon.

"We are on the right side of each great issue," he declared, "but we have candidates, national and local, who deserve our confidence, but this is no time for sleep-walking. It's a house-keeping proposition: ringing door-bells, with everybody in it. There is no room for factional or local jealousies."

Reminding his hearers that "this is football season," Senator Pepper ripped into the national opponents of the Republican party in true gridiron fashion.

"Davis," he asserted, "talks much and says little; Bryan says more and says nothing. La Follette says little and says a lot but the planks that he is saving are the timbers which titulate the ribs and knees of the American ship of state."

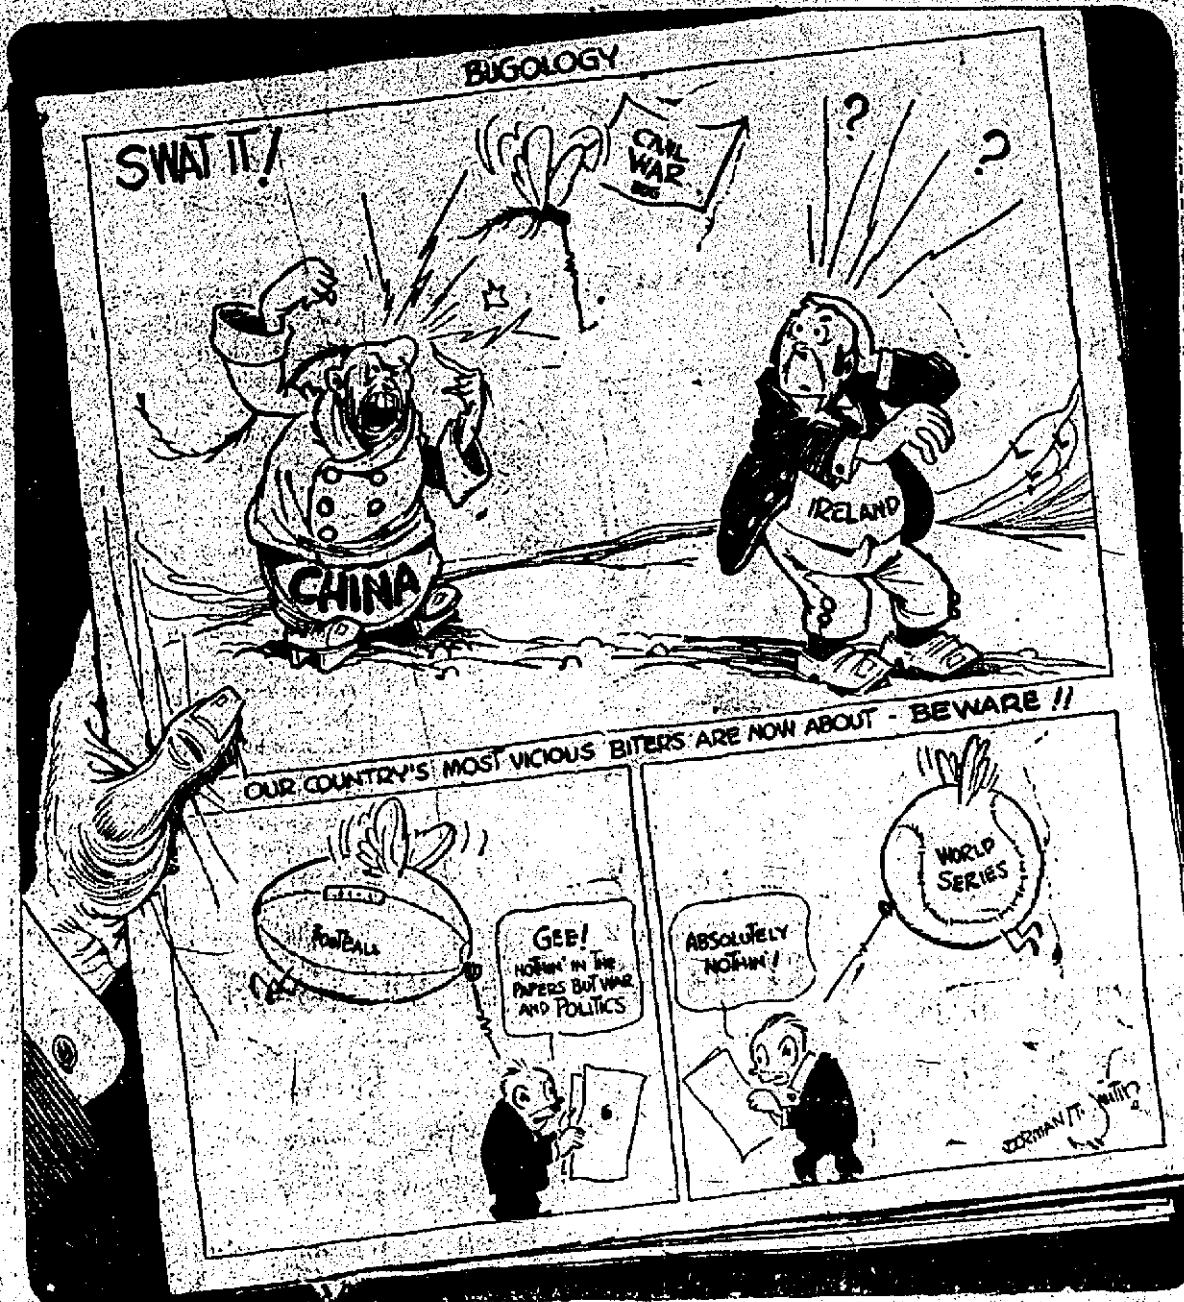

"The Democrats have no message for the nation. The message of La Follette's party will in Pennsylvania affect only those who are strangers to the spirit and tradition of the commonwealth."

Your Savings

CLEARFIELD BUTTER MAKES THESE LITTLE BODIES THRIVE AND GROW

There is so much energy in every morsel of CLEARFIELD BUTTER that it's just such folks as these, folks who are consuming energy every minute just now, that need a butter which is high in food value.

And, by the same token, it's folks like these whose taste for good butter is keener than many an older person. CLEARFIELD BUTTER is distinctly the "Mother-let's-have-another-slice-of-bread" kind of spread for bread and the kiddies will appreciate the taste and thrive on the food value.

A DAY AT A TIME

By FLORENCE DAVIES
It's a little hard to realize when we hear the postman's cheerful whistle, or grumble because he brought us no letter on one of his daily or two-a-day trips, that there is a point in the northernmost tip of Alaska where the mail comes but once a year.

A year's mail in a single day. What would you do if you received it? What a scramble for news from loved ones there would be.

And you read the last letter first, or begin at the beginning and follow through. That would take a deal of courage and self-control. The story is told of a man at Point Barrow, the tip-top point of Alaska, where mail comes but once a year, who subscribed to a daily paper. When the mail brought them all, a paper for every day in the past year, he didn't dive into the heap and scramble through the news. That would only have led to confusion. No, he piled them all in regular order and then set about it to read a paper a day.

Think of the courage and the self-control that man had. If you were reading news of the great war, wouldn't you want to know what happened next? If the news was right there in the stack of papers on your table, wouldn't you rummage around till you found it?

Of course you would. But probably the man was right. Reading all the papers at once would have given him a kind of mental indigestion and left him hungry for his days' newspaper reading in a few weeks.

Very few of us, however, would have that much self-control.

Most of us in fact, can't wait to know what the next day or year will bring, even when there's no way of finding out. Instead we waste a good deal of thought and worry trying to turn the pages of the book of our lives. We worry and wonder and fret about tomorrow, crossing a thousand bridges, little and big, before we come to them, fretting over a hundred "What-ifs".

Even if we could have the day's mail, and the day's news for the next ten years, even if we could look ahead, I wonder if it would be a good thing for us.

Perhaps some of us would falter at what we would see if we could cheat on the day's news and look ahead, just as the man at Point Barrow could, if he wanted to on his year old news.

Most of us are inclined to think that we could gain a good deal if only we could know what was going to come around the next corner. Put I don't think we would. I think that if we will all be honest with ourselves we'll find that if the next ten years are like the last, there will be a good deal of hurt, a good deal of worry and work, and disappointment, but some sure rewards, that in some way have made all the bother of living worth while.

Let's take it as it comes, a day at a time, knowing now that tomorrow's mail may contain bad news, but that to those who have stout hearts life offers some sure compensations, which do, after all, in the end, make the game worth the candle.

and entered a plea of guilty to manufacturing and possession. There being no evidence of sales, Judge Chase sentenced Delmonico to pay $200 fine and costs and serve 10 days in jail.

In the Courts

The second week of September term criminal court opened this morning at 9 o'clock with Judge Chase on the bench.

The first victim to toe the mark was Andrew Delmonico, who was arrested by Squire Roach and his dry squad up in the Houtzdale country several weeks ago. Delmonico did not appear when his case was called last week and a bench warrant was issued for him following the forfeiting of his bail. He appeared this morning.

Curwensville's Own Column

It is a fact that for many years the town of Curwensville has been a center of shoe business. The shoe business is a vital part of the town's life. The shoe business is a vital part of the town's life. The shoe business is a vital part of the town's life.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cadman attended a birthday celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, Clearfield, Friday evening.

John Clark, who was a daughter of Edward Hipple, deceased, now in Washington, D. C., was an guest during the latter part of last week. It has been a good year since her last visit to the town of Curwensville. The Hipple family has become almost a family.

Mrs. England, whose home is in Curwensville, was in town last week. It is her first visit in fifty years. She is of the old England type who left Curwensville many years ago and settled in Ohio. When in charge.

Miss Marjorie Murray, who had intended to go to Williamsport Business School has changed that intention and will become a student at the DuBois Business School. The change was made on account of the ill health of her mother.

Mrs. William Hauck and two children and John L. Hauck of Troutville, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew J. LaPorte.

RED MEN TO HAVE BIG TIME

Chinlelacmoose Tribe of Red Men arranged for big booster meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, October 7th, to which all Red Men are invited. Great Sachem McCright, of Reading, and Great Junior Sagamore Benton, of Williamsport, are expected to attend this meeting.

An interesting program which will include both "eats and smokes" is being arranged for by the committee.

SIMON CALLED PETER

"Simon Called Peter," which comes to the Driggs Theatre Tuesday, Oct. 7th is the dramatization of Robert Keable's novel of the same name by Julius Eckert Goodman and Edward Knoll.

He tells the story of Peter, a war chaplain, and Julie, a red cross nurse. How the young man, a clergyman, surrounded by the influence of the war melts transiently to the extent of soliciting a week-end in a London hotel, how Julie, far wiser, knows she can never thrust the vision of the cross and its sacred appeal from his heart. If he is all to her, she cannot be all to him. And one may guess she realizes as well that with the instincts of a girl, she is in her blood, they cannot be long contented together. But she does send Peter out into the world with a greater understanding of his purpose and a still deeper love for God.

William A. Brady, under whose management "Simon Called Peter" is presented has assembled an admirable company in the persons of Noel Traile, Catherine Willard, June Webster, Wilfred Jessop, Barlowe Boreland, Richard de Sylva and many others.

ONLY POLITICAL UNCERTAINTY HOLDS UP BUSINESS BOOM

New York, Sept. 27 (INS)—Progress in business during the third quarter has been substantial but it has varied considerably in different trades and operations remain under restraint even in lines where activity has increased most, says Duns Review today in its weekly review of business.

"The lack of a more vigorous commercial expansion," says Duns, "is partly accounted for by political conditions, which still cause hesitation, and in some cases, commitments are being held back because of doubts about future prices. Uncertainty in the steel industry with an abatement of demand has resulted from a new method of quoting prices, while cotton goods markets have been unsettled again by wide fluctuations in raw material prices due to changes in crop estimates. Yet some of the influences which now hinder business are not likely to prove more than temporary, and there is clear evidence that despite existing drawbacks, the situation as a whole shows improvement."

INDIANA COUNTY MAN SUICIDES BY MEANS OF SHOTGUN

James T. Crawford, who lives near Willet, Indiana county, committed suicide some time Wednesday afternoon by shooting himself in the head. A shotgun was used as the instrument of death and the charge struck him in the forehead, blowing the whole top of his head off. No definite cause for the terrible deed can be ascribed, unless the man was suffering under a visit of temporary insanity. His eyes had been causing him much trouble and he feared he was going blind. This may have weighed on his mind to such an extent as to lead him to end his troubles.

At noon Mr. Crawford said he was going to Willet that afternoon. The balance of the family went about their several duties and for a short time no one was about the house. It was during this absence the man went upstairs and committed the act. No one heard the shot. When he did not put in an appearance that afternoon nothing was thought about it, as they all thought he was at Willet. About 6 o'clock a son went upstairs and discovered the terrible tragedy.

The deceased was a son of the late Dr. Crawford, of Smicksburg, where he has a couple of brothers. He was about 51 years of age and is survived by his widow and three sons. Interment was made at Smicksburg.

Story of Cremation.

Before the Christian era cremation was prevalent among nearly all nations. Later, burial in the ground became common. Of late years sanitation is responsible for the revival of cremation, which is gaining supporters.

THOMAS C. LEE

Thomas C. Lee, an aged and prominent resident of the southern part of Clearfield county, died at the Lee homestead, midway between Utahville and Glasgow, at 5:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Death was due to diseases incident to old age. He observed his 82 birthday August 18, and apparently was enjoying good health. The deceased was born at McGees Mills, Clearfield county, August 18, 1842, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Lee, and spent his entire life in that community. He was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca McGee on February 2, 1865, and the couple took up housekeeping at McGees Mills, where they resided until 40 years ago when they moved to the farm not far from Utahville where they had since resided. Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Rebecca McGee Lee, and the following children: Mrs. Kittie I. Heverly, widow of Professor H. A. Heverly, for many years a resident of Altoona but more recently residing with the parents; James M. Lee, of Altoona; Wilbur B. Lee, of Pasadena, Calif.; Mrs. Martha Haley, of Utahville; Walter E. Lee, of Altoona; Mrs. Frank Scharman of Johnstown. Four daughters, Mrs. Hattie Neal, of Marion Centre; Mrs. Katurah Whetsel, of Mahaffey; Mrs. Rose Biddle, of New Market; and Mrs. Mary Evans, of Pittsburg, also survive, as do seven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren. He was of the Methodist faith. The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Lee home. Interment in the Pleasant Hill cemetery near Glasgow.

Radio is becoming popular in Russia, and it doesn't matter, but many a whisker will get hung in the wires.

Anyway, most of those Russians were named for a few radio stations.

Some Idea of a Garden.
Letter from a moderately sensitive man to a seed merchant: "Dear Sir: Having one-quarter acre of ground not used for anything but growing stones I wish to know if you have any cheap and attractive garden. Please send me one dozen strawberry seeds; one box with five complete; one dozen plum seeds; ten square yards of grass; one concrete path, winding; six tall flower pots, with six pieces of wall; one safety lawn mower, with patent apparatus for converting it into a safety razor. And please send enough packets to hold the strawberry and plum seeds, and side and back combs, for the honey. The grass should be green—not the withered kind I see in so many gardens—and the seeds of a flavor unsuited for chickens. Yours truly, A. E. GARDNER."

Money Not Everything.
When I hear a man saying that he is in business only for the money he can make and not for the favors he can render, I think of what some wise man said one time: "If a pig could pray he would devote his entire prayer to corn and swill, but men should pray for other sorts of things."—Tom Dreier in Forbes.

A Dad Is Always a Dad.
You can take it from me, the romantic writer, notwithstanding matrimony possesses no alchemy to transmute a dud fellow, a rake, a cad, or any other human throw-out, into a husband who will thereafter acquit himself like a more reasonable human being. From "Through the Glad Eyes of a Woman," by Jane Doe.

Effect of Vines on Walls.
Stonewall and brick buildings are not injured by clinging vines. These may be kept by clinging vines later in the spring, but are otherwise harmless. On wooden buildings damage may be done, since many vines which climb by twining force their way through any joint which is not perfect and then by continued growth force the woodwork apart.

Uncle Eben.
"Some day," said Uncle Eben, "I may feel that it's up to me to go on one of these hunger strikes. If it ever happens, it'll have to be at the time of year when it's too late for spring chickens and too early for watermelon."

Has Only Imagination.
The imagination is the only power I have that is creative. It is the only artist within me that is not a slave to its clay. My will power is weak and my memory is largely automatic and my desires work right along without asking my permission.—Frank Crane

TAGGING ALL BASES

The Dodgers clinched second place by rimming the Braves, 5 to 1, in the last game of the season. Vance scored only five hits, fanned nine and hung up his 28th victory.

The Giants, with the pennant stow-away, let the Phillies have their first in a batting spree. Score, Philadelphia, 11; New York, 6.

The Pirates finished the season in 1 place by losing to the Cubs 7 to 1. Jacobs outpitched Meadows and Gibson.

The Cards ended the season in a place of glory, getting an even break from the Reds in the first of a double bill, 9 to 3. Cincinnati won the nightcap, 8 to 2.

Brooklyn and the White Sox fought rounds to a draw, darkness halting the game with the score tied at 1.

New York, Sept. 29.—The Senators clinched the American League pennant by beating the Red Sox in Boston. The Yankees, two games behind, can tie for the lead by defeating the Athletics in a double bill. The Yankees finished in second place in the National League by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates who were losing to the Cardinals.

New York, Sept. 29 (INS).—"The world's series" between Baltimore and St. Paul, victor of the American Association will open here on Thursday.

Bill, American Association pitcher, who was selected to represent the league in the series, John Connelley, president of the International League, announced today.

IS COLLIDE NEAR OSCEOLA

W. Anderson's sedan was badly wrecked Sunday morning about 10 o'clock as Mr. Anderson was driving from Osceola. While rounding a curve on the State Road just below Osceola a car driven by Clifford J. of Clearfield and to be traveling on the wrong side of the road, ran into the Anderson car, knocking it into the ditch badly wrecking it.

Mrs. Rowles of Grampian, who missed the morning train from Clearfield, was given a lift as far as Clearfield by Mr. Anderson and received numerous cuts and scratches sufficient to confine her to the Clearfield Hospital until today, when she was able to go to her home.

BRING THE RIM BACK

A mighty mean thief jumped onto the Chevrolet car of Capt. L. E. Watson of the Salvation Army over at the grounds Thursday evening and ratted the extra rim and spare tire. The Captain was packing along with the machine in case of emergency. To show you the Captain's heart is in the right place, he said the thief can have the tire if he only bring back the rim. No question will be asked.

Clearfield High Opens

but was not at his best form, judging by his past work in the scrimmages against the first team.

Cooper's strength lay mostly in its backs, especially Dick, who found the brunt of the work on his shoulders. Shaffer, also displayed ability at catching passes and in the last quarter came within an ace of tallying for his team.

The Team Looks Good. Coach Reed is very much satisfied with the work of the team in its first start but is not slow in stating that they must defeat much better teams to win honors. He is very much satisfied with the fighting spirit of the team and its desire to carry on, although, as this means a lot to any team. The way the team carried itself also brought as much praise as did its fine work in the field.

Clearfield was supported by about 160 staunch rooters of all types, including eight or ten young fellows who traveled to the opening on foot.

SATURDAY'S DOPE

DuBois High got their first setback in their first game against Oil City, 13-0. The game was played at Oil City.

Phillipsburg went wild against Milheim, piling up 67 points while Milheim got only 13. Phillipsburg's 1924 team is said to be right there.

Altoona, with Bob Wicker at the helm, set Roaring Spring down 60-0 in the first game on Altoona's new field.

Johnstown smothered Hollidaysburg High 52-0 with Weigel taking the leading honors by his fine playing and scoring of four touchdowns.

The only conference team to lose Saturday was Windber, which went down before Greensburg, 60-0.

BLOWOUT CAUSED WRECK

While returning from a funeral at Phillipsburg Saturday afternoon a tire blew out on one of the wheels of the automobile of Robert Addleman, of Curwensville, as the machine rounded the curve near the coal tippie opposite the Bigler Brick Works. The car skidded off the road and was pretty badly smashed up. There were several persons in the car, but a grandson of Mr. Addleman, with a bad cut on the hand, appeared to be the only casualty worth mentioning.

Numetal Weatherstrips
Keep Out Rain and Cold

The time is fast approaching when NUMETAL WEATHERSTRIPS should be installed in your home, whether it's a new one or an old one. These strips are cleverly formed pieces of brass that will take up the "slack" between doors and windows and the frames.

NUMETAL WEATHERSTRIPS are easily installed, you can do it yourself. There is nothing to wear out about them and they will last for years. They will stop the windows and doors from rattling and keep out rain, cold, wind and dust.

Let us show you how little it will cost to install them in your home.

PITTSBURGH PEOPLE TURN TO WEAPONS IN ENDING FAMILY JARS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 28. (INS.)—Hysterical from a night of weeping, Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Gardner, 22, was being held in the Oakland police station today in connection with the murder of her husband, Edward R. Gardner, 38, whose body was found in their home Sunday. No charges have been lodged against the woman, but police claim to have a signed confession from her in which she admits stabbing her husband with an ice pick.

Mrs. Gardner declared she had seized the ice pick as a weapon to protect herself from an attack her husband had started. She told police how Gardner continually beat her until she was forced to go to her neighbors' home at various times to escape him. Mrs. Gardner had fled to a neighbor's home after the fatal quarrel, and did not know the wound she inflicted with the ice pick was fatal until discovery of the body by a friend who went to attempt a reconciliation.

The Gardners were married in Chicago where both formerly worked as employees of the Kinney-Rome Mattress Manufacturers. Gardner had been promoted to manage the Pittsburgh office of the company when a branch was opened here.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29. (INS.)—Mrs. Sadie Baldwin, 43, of Carnegie, who was brought to the Mercy Hospital here after being shot four times in her Carnegie home rested well last night and is not in a critical condition according to hospital authorities today.

Frank Baldwin, 48, who is said by police to have shot his wife because she would not arrange the furniture to suit him, is in the Carnegie jail charged with shooting with intent to kill.

"The Rainbow
Rangers"Are You
Ruptured?

We wish to announce the visit of the Collings Truss Experts at the Dimmeling Hotel, Clearfield, Pa., from Tuesday noon, Sept. 30, to Wednesday evening, Oct. 1, from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m. and evenings 7 to 9.

Back View of
New Invention for Rupture

We want to demonstrate to you absolutely without a penny in advance, our new invention for holding difficult or aggravated cases of rupture whether of Inguinal or Umbilical character. If you are ruptured you should be interested in our ability to fit you with a truss that will do its work properly and give you the greatest ease and comfort possible.

Scientific and Practical

This New Collings Truss is based on the most scientific principles for holding a rupture. It is not only representative of mechanical perfection but contains that super-power for holding a rupture without discomfort, and that makes for a complete recovery where this result is possible.

Contains No Springs

There are no springs or metal parts used in this new truss other than the small necessary buckles; instead it is made of high-grade elastic web with soft, pliable cloth back made wider so to distribute the pressure over a broader surface. Prevents all cutting and chafing, and gives the necessary uplift to the pads.

It Holds the Rupture

It is easily, quickly and permanently adjusted so an even and uniform pressure can be constantly maintained at any desired tension. The patented sectional pads are adaptable and will fit any kind of rupture. As the cure progresses the pressures can be lessened without a change of pads.

It Stays Put

When placed in position, the truss stays put and does not slide or slide. Regardless of the position of the wearer's body; stooping, jumping or standing erect, the truss remains firm and set, and adjusts itself as the occasion demands.

Comfortable Day or Night

To do its maximum amount of good, a truss should be worn continuously day and night. Upon retiring many people remove their truss, with the result that the weakened muscular tissues relax and often times allow the rupture to assume the form of the original protrusion. This new truss can be worn at all times.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS

From Tuesday Noon, Sept. 30, to Wednesday Evening, Oct. 1.

Lady Fitter to Attend

All Women Callers.

Every ruptured person should visit these truss experts and learn what genuine truss-comfort means. No charge for demonstration or information.
